Dear EPIC Member,

Bimeda[®] Animal Health is pleased to support you as an EPIC member in reaching your mission, vision, and purpose.

At Bimeda, we are proud to help support your continuing education in the 2nd highest cost to your practice, the cost of goods as it relates to all aspects of inventory management.

Not only do we believe in helping provide educational support, but we are also continuously looking to provide the lowest possible costs to you. As a result, through Patterson Animal Health and First Veterinary Supply, you can be sure you are receiving the contract price guarantee with no qualifying requirements. Order these Bimeda products at EPIC's contracted best price with no minimums or qualifying time ranges for the lowest spend and highest return.
